KILLED, 1; HURT, 2

SCAFFOLD AT THE HOME OF MR. J. A. LAMY BROKE AT 8:55 THIS MORNING.

G. W. STANDLEY LOST HIS LIFE

J. W. Holtcamp and William Hogan Injured, but Will Recover—An Inquest is Being Held This Morning.

One man was killed instantly, another was seriously injured and a third man was painfully hurt at 8:55 o'clock this morning, when a scaffold at the home of J. A. Lamy, 500 South Grand avenue, collapsed, precipitating the three men to a cement sidewalk twenty feet below.

Killed:
G. W. Standley, aged 45, married; neck broken.

Injured:
J. W. Holtcamp, married, 237 South Park avenue; right arm, shoulder and back severely strained and bruised.

William Hogan, aged 21, son of A. J. Hogan, 1401 West Tenth street; shoulder and back strained.

Holtcamp was the foreman of a gang of carpenters at work on J. A. Lamy's home, making several thousand dollars' worth of improvements.

He, Standley and Hogan were standing on a scaffold, erected twenty feet in the air, engaged in placing shingles on the front roof. The board on which they were standing was a 2x8 piece of timber, supported at either end by a 1x3 piece of pine, with an eight-foot span between.

The three men had just stepped onto the 2x8 board when the cross-piece supporting it at the west side broke, throwing the three men to a three-foot cement sidewalk below.

Standley fell on his back and shoulders. His neck was broken. He moved his head one inch, gave one moan and breathed no more.

Holtcamp fell on his back, but was able to get up. Hogan alighted on his face. He, too, was able to arise.

The crash of the falling timber was heard for two blocks, and in a moment a crowd of residents of the locality had assembled. Immediately every available physician was summoned. Drs. W. C. Overstreet, Charles McNell, C. B. Trader and K. R. Barnum responding at once.

An examination of Standley showed that death was instantaneous. Coroner Dr. F. R. Morley was summoned and after viewing the body decided to hold an inquest at McLaughlin Bros' undertaking rooms at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Temporary treatment was given to Holtcamp and Hogan, after which they were removed to their homes.

Holtcamp was later attended by Dr. James W. Helton, who, on making an examination, found that his right arm, shoulder and back had been severely strained and bruised.

Hogan was examined at his home, and it was found that his shoulder and back had been painfully strained, but not seriously. Both he and Holtcamp are bedfast.

The accident was a distressing one, and caused a gloom to fall over the other workmen engaged at the Lamy home. When the crash came painters at work on the interior of the house ran to the assistance of the three men, but the sight was so ghastly they turned away.

Standley resided with his wife and children in Northeast Sedalia.

The following comprise the corner-stone jury: J. W. Mallory, W. H. Highleyman, M. H. Morris, I. N. Sprecher, Ellis R. Smith and F. F. Hutton.

At 3 o'clock the jury returned a verdict that Standley met his death by accident in a fall from a scaffold.

BURGLAR TOOK FRIGHT

Failed to Gain Entrance to the Home of Mr. Kemmerly.

An attempt was made Monday night to gain entrance to the home of Mr. Kemmerly, Wilkerson and Harrison avenues, but the would-be intruder was frightened away before he accomplished his purpose.

Late at night the man of the house was awakened by a noise resembling someone trying to get into the place. As he arose from bed he heard a man's voice say, "This is Lambirth's home." Mr. Lambirth, the feed merchant, resides next door.

When Mr. Kemmerly began to investigate the intruder ran away.

Gets Same Money in Frisco.

Harry Suter, who has been sold by the Chicago American league team to the Frisco team of the Pacific Coast league, will arrive here tomorrow afternoon for a visit with his father, George Suter, on his way to the coast.

Harry is to get the same salary in Frisco that he did with Chicago, and also his fare going to and returning from the coast.

"Grandpa" Sheldon is Happy.

Mrs. Edna Ruppert, nee Sheldon, formerly of Sedalia, but now of Kansas City, is the proud mother of a daughter, born at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sheldon, 204 West Cooper street, Monday.

TO STOP SPEEDING

MAYOR J. W. MELLOR IS TO STOP "RED DEVILS" RACING IN SEDALIA.

ORDER IS ISSUED TO THE POLICE

Also Going After People Who Throw Broken Glass and Tacks in the Streets to Ruin Tires of Automobiles.

Mayor J. W. Mellor has inaugurated a crusade to stop fast automobile riding in the city limits, and effective at once the city police will arrest any automobile driver, regardless of who it is, if caught exceeding the speed limit in the corporate limits of Sedalia.

The same official has also instructed the police to arrest and incarcerate in jail at once any person who throws glass or tacks in the public streets with a view of destroying automobile tires.

Numerous complaints have been filed with the mayor that persons, especially boys in East Sedalia, sprinkle tacks on the paved streets and cover the same with pieces of paper. When the automobiles pass over the paper the result is that the tires are punctured and invariably cause the owner no little inconvenience and expense.

Mayor Mellor requests the Democrat-Sentinel to state that the severest penalty possible will be inflicted on both automobile speeders and those caught damaging automobile tires.

WED BY REV. W. F. JONES

Bridal Couple Departed for Warrensburg and Kansas City.

Fred N. Foster, a widely known young druggist of Fillmore, Mo., and Miss Abbie D. Overstreet, a daughter of Mrs. F. A. Overstreet, of Leslie, Searcy county, Ark., were united in wedlock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. R. Dillard, 303 West Fourth street, at high noon today.

The Rev. W. F. Jones, presiding elder of the Methodist church for this district, performed the ceremony in the presence of only immediate relatives.

A sumptuous dinner was served immediately afterwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster left this afternoon for Warrensburg and Kansas City to spend their honeymoon, after which they will go to housekeeping at Fillmore.

Mrs. Foster recently has been engaged as an efficient school teacher at Leslie, and it was while teaching at Fillmore that she met her husband.

DEATH OF W. P. LOVELACE

Was Born in This County and Had Always Resided Here.

Mr. Lovelace was born in Pettis county. A widow and four children, all sons, survive, as follows: Floyd, Vernon, William and George Lovelace.

Deceased had been ill three weeks. He belonged to the Woodmen of the World and the Masons.

COURT IN CHARGE

SEDALIA LIGHT AND TRACTION COMPANY PLACED IN RECEIVERS' HANDS.

THE ACTION TOOK PLACE TODAY

W. H. Powell, of Sedalia, and E. F. Swinney, of Kansas City, Appointed by Judge Phillips—Could Not Meet Interest.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Kansas City, Mo., May 8.—In the United States district court here today, Judge J. F. Phillips presiding, the Sedalia Light and Traction company was, on petition of the bondholders, most of whom are residents of Boston, placed in the hands of receivers, and W. H. Powell, cashier of the Citizens' National bank of Sedalia, and E. F. Swinney, president of the First National bank of Kansas City, were appointed joint receivers to take charge of the property and operate it for the benefit of the bondholders and other creditors.

Messrs. Powell and Swinney will take charge of the property immediately.

The above special to the Democrat-Sentinel was received in this city at noon today and came as a surprise to all concerned.

Mr. Powell was called to Kansas City yesterday afternoon and at that time was in ignorance of the purpose of the call.

It has been known for some time that the company was in financial difficulties and that Edward M. Deane & Co., of Grand Rapids, Mich., who are supposed to own a majority of the stock, and the receivers of E. S. Gay & Co., of Boston, who also controlled some of the stock, were not in perfect agreement.

Besides this, the tremendous bonded indebtedness of the company, reaching to about $710,000, was more of a burden than the earning capacity of the company could bear, and it was only a question of time when it would default in its interest.

This it did on June 1, and the bondholders, it would seem, took quick action and appealed to the federal court for protection.

What the policy of the receivers will be cannot be learned, as Mr. Powell will not return to Sedalia until this afternoon on Missouri Pacific train No. 8 at 4:30 o'clock.

The step taken will solve many of the difficulties under which the company has been laboring and will tend to clear the situation much to the betterment of the city, as the property will, if placed upon an actual valuation, be able to pay as an investment and at the same time meet the obligations of its franchise without hardship, something it has been unable to do under existing conditions.

LOST HIS PURSE AND $75

B. S. Sink, of Houstonia, Who Was Visiting in Sedalia.

B. S. Sink, living near Houstonia, lost a pocketbook in Sedalia this morning containing $75 in currency.

Mr. Sink is a road overseer in his neighborhood and he drew the money from the county yesterday.

He had a deposit slip filled out to deposit the money in the Sweet Springs bank, but while in Sedalia he was served with a jury summons and was detained in Sedalia.

Mr. Sink says he carried the money around with him in his pocket and is at a loss to account for its disappearance.

BUILD $3,000 BUNGALOW

Will Be Occupied By E. Detzen and Family September 1.

F. T. Leaming, city engineer, today issued a permit to Contractor J. C. Warren to erect a modern five-room bungalow at the corner of Fifth street and Sneed avenue, at a cost of $3,000.

Work on the dwelling will begin at once and it will be finished by September 1, when it will be occupied by E. Detzen and family, of 1422 South Harrison avenue.

Mr. Detzen was formerly a wealthy stockman of Hughesville.

Will Attend a Convention.

A delegation of eight Sedalians left at noon today for University City, Mo., to attend the first national convention of the American Woman's League.

Those going from Sedalia are: Misses Minerva Daniel, Lottie Smith, Mary and Lina Parsons, Ida Jolly, Mrs. C. T. Lyons, Mrs. Pauline Kelk and Mrs. James, wife of the evangelist.

The convention opens tomorrow and will be in session until Saturday night. Thousands of delegates are expected to attend.

The A. O. U. W. to Elect Officers.
The semi-annual election of officers of Amity lodge No. 69, A. O. U. W., will be held at the lodge hall at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

AGAINST THE DRYS

CONGRESSMAN BOUTELL OF ILLINOIS MAKES SPEECH OPPOSING PROHIBITION.

SAYS THE LAWS DON'T PROHIBIT

Also Asserts That There is an Appalling Measure of Use of Patent Medicines, Tonics and Narcotic Drugs.

Washington, D. C., June 8.—Addressing the annual convention of the United States Brewers' association today, Representative Boutell of Illinois made an unqualified attack on prohibition.

Three lessons, he said, are to be learned from the several states which have prohibition laws in effect, and these lessons are: That prohibition does not prohibit; that when the sale of mild beverages are forbidden, surreptitious sales of strong spirits of an inferior quality are greatly increased; that there was an appalling increase in the prohibition states in the demand for patent medicine, tonics and narcotic drugs.

He declared that prohibitory laws, whether effective or ineffective, are regarded by the wisest statesmen and philanthropists out of harmony with the spirit of an ideal government of an enlightened and free people.

RAINING EVERYWHERE

Unprecedented Weather Prevails All Over the Southwestern Country.

Kansas City, Mo., June 8.—A rain-storm of almost unprecedented severity prevailed over Western Missouri and Kansas for several hours today. In this city cellars were flooded and much damage done to property in the lowlands. For two hours the city was enveloped in darkness the density of the precipitation making it difficult to see across the street. In Kansas City, Kan., Mrs. Charlotte Hicks was killed by lightning while standing on her porch.

In Joplin, Mo., many cellars are flooded. Many mines near Galena, Kan., suspended operations, because of being flooded.

Rain at Topeka was accompanied by heavy hail.

DESERTION IS ALLEGED

Mrs. Jackman alleges desertion, and states in the petition that they lived together until January 23, 1909. She also asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Cora E. Smith.

Can we? We can't afford to fail. Will we? We've got to. But are we going to?

Just keep your eyes on us and see the work we do. We are all together and nothing, not even the weather man nor a volcanic eruption, can stop us.

For real Simon-pure optimism the fadeless kind that rubs off of everybody, the gloom-dispelling, made-in-Sedalia, never-die variety, you are respectfully referred to any of the workers for the Y. M. C. A. building, who were banqueted last evening in honor of the opening of the campaign and to extend a generous reception to Hon. Henry M. Beardsley, former mayor of Kansas City, who spoke eloquently upon the benefits of Y. M. C. A. work in Kansas City, as well as in many other places with which he is familiar.

A more representative gathering of Sedalia's foremost business and professional men could not be imagined than that assembled to the number of 175 at this spread. An elaborate menu was served, the entire work and superintendence of which was looked after by the several lady members of various church societies, in charge of Mrs. Demand and Mrs. Minnier and the dining room in charge of Mrs. Dr. E. A. Wood.

The entire menu was especially en-

BUCHER SEEKS A DIVORCE

Alleges Wife Deserted Him Five Weeks After Marriage.

J. W. Bucher, through Attorney A. L. Shortridge, late Tuesday brought suit in circuit court for a decree of divorce from his wife, Mrs. Frankie J. Bucher, alleging that less than five weeks after he married her she deserted him.

The petition recites that the couple was married in Pettis county on November 4, 1908. On December 7, 1908, according to the petition, Mrs. Bucher absented herself from him, remaining away until January 26, 1910.

The petition further recites that on May 27, 1910, the defendant, accompanied by the constable, proceeded to his home, where she took possession of more than one hundred chickens and other property belonging to the plaintiff.

MISS WHIPPLE TO WED

Former Resident of Sedalia Now Living in Denver.

Sedalia friends today received information of the approaching marriage of Miss Lillian Whipple, a daughter of A. F. Whipple, a former Sedalia coal and wood dealer, to a Denver, Colo., dentist next Saturday.

The wedding will occur at the home of Miss Whipple and will be attended by quite a few guests. The bridal couple will locate at Denver, after a brief honeymoon.

Miss Whipple is well remembered in Sedalia and legions of friends will learn of the event with pleasure.

Ladies' Musical Club Met.

The members of the Ladies' Musical club met at the Elks' club rooms this morning to wind up the business for the year, but the election of officers was deferred until the return of Mrs. W. D. Steele, who is touring Europe.

Settling with the orchestra and all unfinished business since the last annual meeting was disposed of.

The Burial of Ernest Heaton.

The funeral of Ernest Heaton, who died at Joplin, Monday, was held from the family residence, 109 West Seventh street, at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Burial was in Crown Hill cemetery.

The services were conducted by the Revs. W. E. Jones, W. A. McClanahan and Grant A. Robbins.

DROWNED BATHING

SHELLEY PATTERSON, OF SEDALIA, LOST LIFE IN COLORADO RIVER.

THE BODY HAS BEEN RECOVERED

Associated Press Dispatch to the Democrat-Sentinel Was First Information Received in the City.

The Democrat-Sentinel today received the following Associated Press dispatch from Austin, Texas:

"John Shelley Patterson, of Sedalia, Missouri, was drowned in the Colorado river here last night while bathing."

"The body was recovered. Patterson was a sophomore student in the state university."

Shelley Patterson was the 23-year-old son of Conductor J. M. Patterson, of the Missouri Pacific, who has been at the company hospital in St. Louis for several months.

The sad news was imparted to Clyde Patterson, a brother, today, by a Democrat-Sentinel reporter, it being the first information the family had of Shelley's death.

This morning Clyde received a message from another brother, Guy, who sells shoes in Texas, saying he was going to Austin, and would wire him tonight.

The mysterious message had partially prepared Clyde for bad news of some kind, but he had no intimation of its exact nature until advised by the Democrat-Sentinel.

Miss Ethel Patterson, a girl of 15 years, left last Saturday for a visit with her brother, Shelley at Austin, and as she had not been heard from since, the family feared Guy's message related to some misfortune that had befallen her.

The body of Shelley Patterson will be brought here for burial. He was a deservedly popular young man, and a legion of friends here and at other points in Missouri will learn of his death with deepest sorrow.

WON A MISSOURI BRIDE

Frank C. Hoyt and Miss Leona McVey to Wed This Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George McVey and child and Mrs. C. E. Northway left at 8:50 o'clock this morning for Columbia, Mo., where, at 8 o'clock tonight, they will attend the marriage of Miss Leona McVey, a pretty and popular former Sedalia girl, to Frank Corliss Hoyt, also a former Sedalian, now of Cincinnati, O.

The wedding will occur at the home of Miss McVey's mother, 511 Turner avenue, and will be solemnized by the Rev. Roy Thomas, a Baptist minister.

A dainty wedding supper will follow and the couple will leave at once for Cincinnati to locate, where Mr. Hoyt is district manager of the "F. & P." lighting system.

WERE 6,125 NAILS IN KEG

The Guess of Carl Hoffman, of This City, Was 6,055.

Carl Hoffman, son of Charles Hoffman, the grocer, guessed nearest the correct number of nails in the keg which has been in the St. Louis Clothing company's window the past few weeks. He will receive a pair of Duchess trousers as a reward for his guessing ability.

There were 6,125 nails in the keg by actual count, and young Hoffman's guess was 6,055.

SHOW CAME LATE

GENTRY BROTHERS ARRIVED FROM COLUMBIA AT 8:45 A. M. TODAY.

THE PARADE WAS DECLARED OFF

Splendid Performance Being Given This Afternoon—Tents Will Be Crowded Tonight if Favorable Weather.

Gentry Bros' all new shows arrived in the city this morning at 8:45 o'clock over the M., K. & T. railroad, and the tents were quickly located on the show grounds at Liberty park, where two performances will be given today.

Owing to the late hour of arrival, the street parade had to be abandoned. Bad weather, however, will not interfere with the merit of the two performances.

The matinee performance this afternoon is well attended, the weather considered. The applause of the older folks, coupled with the shrill shouts of approval of the youngsters, testify that Gentry Brothers' all new feature shows, as this year's entertainment is known, have hit the keynote of success.

In addition to the dogs and ponies, which have been long favorites with the patrons, the new acrobatic and aerial specialties offered by the several troupes of performers were enjoyed immensely.

The Bonesette troupe, famed European acrobats, the Two Bouchards, German circus performers, Four Keelies, French Comiques, the beautiful Latell Sisters, aerialists, and Marcell & Lennett, English pantomimists, all presented specialties which were both new and novel.

All of the acts mentioned above were imported especially for Gentry Bros' shows this year, and their acts have never been seen before.

The finale of the program introduced Captain Bon Bouclair and his mixed group of performing wild animals, consisting of lions, leopards, pumas and other enemies of the cat animal tribe, which have been trained to perform in the same arena. It was indeed a thrilling display.

The Gentry Bros' Shows this year are larger and better and ever before and present the absolute perfection of amusement.

THE IOWA PRIMARIES

Eight Insurgent and Three 'Stand-Pat' Candidates Nominated.

Des Moines, Ia., June 8.—While the returns from yesterday's primaries are still far from complete, the nomination of Carroll, republican, and Porter, democrat, for governor seems certain.

Eight progressives and three "stand-patters" were nominated for congress.

Claimed By Both Sides.

Des Moines, Ia., June 8.—The republican nomination for governor is claimed by both sides this morning by 10,000. The result apparently is very close.

IT WAS AS DARK AS NIGHT

Hailstones as Big as Hickory Nuts at Topeka, Kan.

Topeka, Kan., June 8.—For thirty minutes, beginning at 10 o'clock this morning, Topeka was enveloped in darkness. The barometer fell rapidly, and people were greatly alarmed. The darkness was followed by a hail storm, the stones being the size of hickory nuts. A down-pour of rain succeeded this. The temperature was 59 degrees.

The city is filled with visitors to attend the aviation exhibition and the Jobbers' and Manufacturers' convention.

NOT TO REMOVE TROOPS

Colored Soldiers Will Remain, Despite a Protest.

Washington, D. C., June 8.—President Taft has flatly refused to accede to a demand from citizens of Seattle, Wash., transmitted through Senator Jones, for the removal of the Twenty-Fifth infantry, colored, because a soldier is accused of assaulting a white woman.

THE WEATHER FORECAST.
Showers tonight or Thursday, warmer tonight; cooler west portion Thursday afternoon.

INSTRUCTING ENGLAND.
Col. Roosevelt having spent fully a week, or possibly ten days, in Egypt is, of course, fully equipped to instruct the British government on how to run that dependency. And in his customary modest and unassum-ing manner, having seen a duty to perform, he did it.

In historic Guild hall, London, surrounded by the trappings and frip-pery of monarchy, but unawed by the presence of cabinet officers, parliamentary leaders and government agents, who have been wrestling with the Egyptian problem for many weary years, the on-the-spot American told them, free of charge, right off the bat, what to do, illuminating his discourse with passages from his own experiences in benevolently assimilating the unruly Philippines and others of "our possessions."

The colonel made it clear that he has no patience with inferior peoples, who cherish absurd desires for self-government, and that it is the plain duty of all strong and powerful nations to "big-stick all such into humble, Christlike submission to the God inspired will of the mighty.

If the colonel had his way, doubtless he would send a few hell-roaring Jake Smiths into Egypt and by a few vicious massacres of the natives inculcate among the survivors such a profound and proper respect for the majesty of British rule, British law and British justice that there would be nothing further heard of the Egyptian nationalist party.

We learn with astonishment that the English people and government do not seem to be so sincerely grateful for Mr. Roosevelt's generous and priceless advice as they should be.
Instead of parliament tendering him a vote of thanks and the populace proclaiming him a second King Solomon, whose matchless mind has shown them in a moment the solution of problems which generations of British statesmen have sought in vain to solve, there actually seems to be more of resentment and ridicule in the attitude of the British press and the British people toward the Universal Regulator and his advice than there is of reverence and humble thankfulness.

Ribald journalists treat him as a joke and jealous statesmen accuse him of butting into something that doesn't concern him. Which shows remarkable ignorance on their part of the fact that everything concerns our Teddy, from babies to bombshells, and that instructing nations in their rights, duties and responsibilities is but one of the many cheerful tasks daily performed by the self-constituted Director of the Universe.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING BEST.

Newspaper advertising is the best form of advertising because it reaches the people in a way that no other form of advertising can. Billboards and posters attract only those persons who happen to pass by, but the newspaper, going as it does into the very heart of the home, reaches everyone. The man or woman who is too proud to stop to read or even glance at the billboard or circular, will in the home take delight in looking over the advertising in the newspaper.

And the newspaper not only gives an opportunity to reach more people, but it gives an opportunity to present more attractive ads from day to day. The billboards say the same old thing day after day, but the newspaper can give variety to the make-up and the arrangement, although the same thing may be said.

Advertising to pay must reach the people and impress them. It must make them feel convinced that the thing which they see advertised is the thing they need. And nothing other than the newspaper can do this, for it comes into the home as a daily visitor and the man, woman or child who reads is unconsciously convinced of the truth of statements in the advertising columns, to the extent that he feels impelled to give a test by buying. For this very reason, then, the newspaper is the best advertiser. It comes regularly and silently, whispers its message and convinces because of its frequency and regularity.—University Missourian.

The ultimate conquest of the air is brought a step nearer realization by the feat of Glenn H. Curtiss in flying from Albany to New York with but one stop, thus winning the New York World's prize of $10,000 for the successful accomplishment of the task. The same newspaper now offers $30,000 to the aviator who will first traverse the distance from New York to St. Louis in a heavier-than-air machine. It is hoped that no daring enthusiast will come to a lamentable Darius Green end in an effort to win the prize and honor.

Many people do not realize the significance of small beginnings. The first dollar must be saved or there will never be a fortune. The only sure way to make money is to save it, save all you possibly can, put it away and forget you have it.

MONEY MAKES THE OPPORTUNITY;
OPPORTUNITY MAKES THE MAN.

Be prepared to meet opportunity; save a little each week; deposit it regularly.
The pleasure of watching your account grow will far more than compensate you for the small sacrifices you may have to make to get a little money ahead.

Letter to Mr. O. M. Barnett.
Sedalia, Mo.

Dear Sir: Thomas J. Bannon, druggist, Westerly, R. I., says:
Westerly painters expect a gallon of paint to cover 19 sets of blinds; Devoe covers 25; there is no such thing as rubbing this out.

(The usual reckoning is for a gallon to cover 16. We suspect the Westerly people don't wear their paint till it gets very shabby.)

Devoe covers more; of course, we know that; we know why, too; it's all paint and full-measure.

Yours truly

REWARD IS CRUEL

CITIZEN OF ST. LOUIS WOULD ENRICH MUNCIE, INDIANA, BUT IS JAILED.

POLICE OF THE CITY INTERFERED

Charles Morrissey, With Tramp Companion, Alights From Pullman and Startles Citizens With Shower of Money.

St. Louis, Mo., June 8.—Benevolence, which took the form of a public distribution of his money, yesterday, resulted in the arrest of Charles Morrissey of St. Louis, in Muncie, Ind. Morrissey was trying to give away all the funds in his possession. He apparently was well supplied with gold, silver and currency, and it did not require long for him to attract a crowd of those who considered it blessed to receive.

Accompanying Morrissey was a tramp, who protested to the Muncie police when they endeavored to prevent further distribution of the St. Louisian's wealth. Morrissey dangled his protest by declaring, as the two started for jail, that he would not desert the tramp in "an hour of peril."

While expressing admiration for the tramp's loyalty and affection in warm, if somewhat loosely connected sentences, Morrissey did not neglect to tell the police what he thought of their interference with his personal liberty. As an American citizen, possessed of money, he declared it was his privilege to do as he pleased with it.

"I've already given away two centuries," declared Morrissey. Insisting that their policy of conservation was to Morrissey's interest, the police temporarily forgot all about the constitution of the United States, the Magna Charta and every other document applicable to the situation.

At the jail it was said Morrissey would be held until he was in condition to appreciate his own benevolence. It was estimated it would require something like ten or twelve hours.

Morrissey reached Muncie yesterday morning, accompanied by the tramp. They traveled in a Pullman. Morrissey was well dressed, and his appearance contrasted greatly with that of his companion. He declined to give his St. Louis address further than to say that he was "from Olive street."

Stuffed Chicken.

One boned chicken, half a pound of lean veal, half a pound of ham, three tablespoonsful of bread crumbs, yolks of two hard-boiled eggs, one tablespoonful chopped parsley, half a teaspoonful white pepper, a little grated lemon rind.

Bone a chicken without breaking the skin, chop finely the veal, ham and yolks of eggs. Mix all well together with the crumbs, parsley, lemon rind and pepper, pack into the fowl, sew it up, and stew gently for two hours. Serve with white sauce poured over. This is good.

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always treat, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—little late though—Congress says: "Put on the label if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason, mothers and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must be law to be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding.

ACOMIA

Many Men Have It and Most of Them Worry About It.

ACOMIA—it's a magic word—what does it mean? Simply absence of hair. A baldheaded man has ACOMIA—A million more men will have ACOMIA a year from now if they do not get rid of disgusting dandruff.

Dandruff is caused by a germ. This germ is a persistent sort of germ. He lives on the vitality stored in the hair roots, and the longer you tolerate his presence the surer you are of growing bald.

Kill the dandruff germs; that's the only way to keep from growing bald. Any capable doctor will tell you.

THE LATE BILL NYE

MAN WHO MADE LARAMIE, WLO-MING, BOOMERANG KNOWN THE WORLD OVER.

HIS GRAVE REMAINS UNMARKED

North Carolina Press Association Takes Preliminary Steps With a View of Erecting a Monument to His Memory.

Wrightsville Beach, N. C., June 8.—One of the features of the opening session of the annual convention of the North Carolina Press association, which convened at the Hotel Tarrymore this morning, was the launching of a movement to erect a substantial memorial to the late "Bill" Nye the humorist, whose death occurred at his home in this state in 1896, and whose unmarked grave in Henderson county is the Mecca for many tourists. The movement, which was introduced in the course of an essay on journalistic problems by R. W. Vincent, of the Charlotte Observer, was eloquently seconded by James H. Caine, of the Asheville Citizen, in an enthusiastic speech.

In proposing the memorial project Mr. Vincent said, in part:

"Up yonder in the mountain fastnesses of Henderson, in a lone grave unmarked save by a rough stone border, unadorned, which, by his wish is the only monument he desired, lies all that is mortal of an adopted son, whose memory this state has neglected to honor—one we are proud to claim as of our craft—the lamented 'Bill' Nye.

"It was his misfortune not to have been born in North Carolina—Maine claims that honor—but the best years of his life were spent at beautiful Buck Shoals and the best work of his career was done there. It was in the Carolina foothills that he gave up the unequal struggle, and it is there that he is buried.

"We can not more ornately mark his last resting place if we respect his wishes, but we can erect in Hendersonville, or Asheville, or, if you will, in the shadow of the capitol at Raleigh, a suitable and substantial memorial to show to the world that we know our duty and have performed it.

"Who among us has not delighted his soul with the Boomerang stories or dropped a tear over the pathos of 'The Pass that Came Too Late'? The good that he did by making the world brighter by the music of his mirth can not be measured in words, and he left us things upon which to reflect and thoughts upon which to build for ourselves a future, that let us hope, may be rewarded by those who live after us, better than we have rewarded those who have gone before."

In seconding the movement to erect a memorial to Bill Nye, James H. Caine, of the Asheville Citizen, said:

"In endorsing the Nye monument movement I believe I voice the sentiment not only of the press fraternity of Western North Carolina, but of the great majority of the citizenship of that section, who hold in loving remembrance the name of the man whose body now rests in the shadows of their mountains.

"While the present movement found its inception within the ranks of our state press association some years ago, there has long been a feeling in the western section, and especially in that community where Nye lived and moved, that something more than a nameless stone should keep in mind the genial spirit whose gospel was sunshine and whose creed was good cheer.

"True, the block of granite which now does sentry duty at Nye's grave in the lone country churchyard at Arden mutely expresses the dying wishes of the humorist, but we would not be disregarding those wishes were we to erect, by means of popular subscription, a marble shaft which would in some measure express the regard and veneration we feel for the man with whom all of us laughed and wept by turns.

"It is fitting and proper that the movement to perpetuate the memory of Nye should find its reincarnation here, for he was one of us. The struggling vicissitudes of his early journalistic days could not dim the light of genius which shone so brightly in later years. We should not hesitate to go on record here and now, representing the North Carolina Press association, as setting on foot a movement to erect at our state capital a fitting monument to one of the greatest and most gifted humorists the world has ever known."

UNDER AUTO IN CREEK

Two Killed in Accident in California Canon.

San Jose, Cal., June 8.—The bodies of Miss Dolores Sunol, daughter of the late Antonio Sunol of Barcelona, a pioneer millionaire land owner of this city, and Mrs. Frances Sunol Lintell of Eureka, Cal., under an overturned automobile in the Pentecosta creek, in Alum Rock canon, late Monday afternoon.

The women, who were cousins, left the cafe at the park in an electric runabout at 4:20 o'clock and must have reached the point where the accident occurred a few minutes later.

The machine evidently struck a rock and skidded into the creek.

Twenty minutes after they started down the canon Dr. J. A. Richards of San Francisco started over the same road and found the bodies. An examination of the bodies tonight indicate that Miss Sunol was drowned and Mrs. Lintell was crushed to death.

Miss Sunol is the stepdaughter of the late Mrs. Pedro De Saisset of an old French family of San Jose.

TURN LOOSE $5,000,000

Work Ordered Suspended to Be Resumed Next Friday.

Washington, D. C., June 8.—President W. C. Brown of the New York Central was so pleased at the way in which President Taft has treated the railroads in the present controversy over rates, that he said last night he would order the resumption of all work on the Central which he ordered suspended on Friday last.

This work, it was said at that time, would require the expenditure of $5,000,000. It had to do with improving stations, building new ones, laying of additional tracks and making yard and roadbed improvements. The Central also will permit the Pressed Steel Car company, the Standard Steel Car company and the American Steel Car company of Pittsburg to go ahead with orders given them some time ago for 3,000 new freight cars, which it was estimated would cost about $1,000 apiece. The orders for these cars were canceled on Friday also.

Commenting on the agreement reached with the administration yesterday, President Brown said:

"It was just as good an arrangement as could have been made. It is so satisfactory that I intend to order the resumption of work on the Central which was ordered stopped last week."

Further comment, Mr. Brown said, was unnecessary.

MYSTERY IN CAMP

VISIT OF EDDIE GRANEY CAUSING THE WISE ONES TO WONDER.

THIS WAS IN THE JEFFRIES CAMP

Jeffries and Corbett Did Not Box Yesterday Afternoon, But Engaged in a Handball Game Which Almost Ended in a Row.

Ben Lomond, Cal., June 8.—Closely following the managerial row in the negro champion's camp there are indications of something brewing in Jeffries' quarters. Just what is in the air cannot be learned, but the presence of Eddie Graney, the San Francisco referee, and "Jack" Gleason, one of the promoters of the big fight, has given rise to more or less speculation.

It is true that Graney, who has refereed many fights, says that he came to Ben Lomond merely to see Jeffries and Corbett in action in their first sparring bout, but it is equally true that this explanation is not being generally accepted around the camp.

It is recalled that Graney and Sam Berger, Jeffries' manager, are anything but friendly; in fact, do not make any attempt to disguise their real feeling toward each other, and stories about the camp have it that the presence of the "Honest Blacksmith" does not augur well for Sam.

Gleason also refuses to go into details regarding the object that he, like Graney, came here to see Jeffries and "Gentleman Jim" in action. Jeffries' good humor seems to be the best barometer of conditions in the camp, and if there are any disturbing winds blowing as a result of Gleason's and Graney's visit, they have not yet reflected themselves in the moods of the big fellow.

For the second time the first boxing bout between Jeffries and Corbett suffered a postponement and disappointed a large crowd of fight enthusiasts who came down from San Francisco to see the former champion and the undefeated one in action. At the last moment Jeffries decided to await the completion of his outdoor ring before using the gloves with Corbett. All the materials for the ring are on hand but the finishing touches must be put on by an expert carpenter who came from San Francisco on this evening's train. He expects to have the ring completed in time for Jeffries and Corbett to do their first sparring tomorrow.

Camp visitors were entertained with a warmly contested game of handball between the two ex-champions which was refereed by "Jack" Gleason. The two big fellows to the delight of the crowd, got into a heated argument over a ball which Jeffries claimed was fair. Corbett was equally insistent that it was foul. The altercation waxed noisy and the game came near breaking up into a row. Disregarding the referee, who had not seen the ball, and hence was loath to rule, Jeffries and Corbett tried to settle it between themselves. Corbett's good nature triumphed, and when things were warmest Jeffries suddenly admitted that Corbett had out-talked him and gave in. He was mollified by winning the game.

A GIFT OF $10,000

joyable, and the ice cream donated by Mr. B. S. Rembaugh merits special mention. Various cards, such as "One minute to say it, twelve months to pay it," "Never say quit," etc., were placed prominently around the splendidly decorated banquet room. Those present at the speakers' table, in addition to the guests of honor, were: Mrs. S. E. Cotton and Mrs. Traubhaugh and Mrs. Major, special guests of Mrs. Cotton; John Montgomery, Jr., chairman executive committee; J. W. Mellor, mayor of Sedalia; S. E. Spencer, chairman in charge of campaign; W. D. Fellows, campaign secretary; Jas. H. Banks, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A.; J. H. Piper, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and wife; D. H. Smith, G. A. Sturges, D. B. Bulkley, president Sedalia Y. M. C. A.; E. B. Farley, Rev. Harold Cooper, Rev. Grant Robbins and Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer.

Earnest and commendable short talks were made by Mr. Mellor, mayor; Mr. John Montgomery, Jr., and Mr. S. E. Spencer preliminary to the chief address of Mr. H. M. Beardsley, the guest of honor. Mr. Beardsley has a state-wide reputation as a man who has done much as mayor of Kansas City, and is an orator of great ability. Although a great treat was expected of him all expectations were surpassed in the splendid entertaining speech given.

Immediately following Mr. Beardsley there were several impromptu talks by D. H. Smith, Rev. Harold Cooper, Judge D. E. Kennedy, J. H. Banks, state secretary, and Mr. W. D. Fellows, campaign secretary. Mr. Fellows explained in detail the methods to be used in systematically securing the necessary $50,000.

Judge Selden P. Spencer, of St. Louis, who was expected to speak at the banquet, was unable to be present as expected, being called to Chicago by telegram upon urgent business connected with the International Harvester Co. case in that city.

This was a source of regret, but the extraordinary speech of Mr. Beardsley completely made up for the absence of Mr. Spencer.

Watch the hands of the clock upon the court house. They change at 1 p. m. each day. You can make it move upward and hasten the securing of the required amount by your subscription. The committees will meet each day at luncheon at 12 o'clock during the campaign to report subscriptions up to that time.

Now the opportunity is before every Sedalian to help to erect this splendid monument for the physical, educational and spiritual help of young men and boys for all time. Are you going to lend a helping hand now when it is needed so much? You certainly heard the blasts from the siren whistle of the monarch laundry today. It will blow every time $500 is added to the fund during the next ten days.

A Great Book Mark.

A pretty book mark can be made with the breast bone of a chicken. Scrape it carefully and paint with tube paints any desired color. Tie a little ribbon bow at the top and the book mark will not only be pretty, but quite serviceable as it sits astride the heaviest or smallest book, making a convenient marker.

How She Cooked Green Beans.

You would think that every woman knew how to cook green beans, though there are many who think all that is necessary is to boil them in water with enough pork to season them and when tender they are done. The idea is all right and that is the only really good way to cook them, but how tasteless they are if cooked in this manner and lifted with a drainer and placed on the table. They are as tasteless as beet tops. To properly cook beans they should be placed in water enough to boil them, with salt and pepper and a piece of smoked bacon or ham for seasoning. The ham is best, though not so rich as bacon. Never put a piece of pork in with beans that is not trimmed. If this rusty skin is left on, it will give a strong taste to the beans. Scald the meat, score one side and lay on top the beans. Cook vigorously until done, adding water when necessary. Set on top of the stove to cook slowly. When done there should not be over a half cupful of water on them. Open a can of corn or cut new corn and stir into the beans. Cook until the kernels are tender, which takes but a few minutes. Green beans are more delicious than wax ones and pods containing half-grown or full-grown beans are better than unformed beans. Good beans snap when broken, an old one is tough and does not break easily without twisting the pod. They never cook nicely.

FOR THE SAKE OF OTHERS

Considers it Her Duty to Tell.

I write this for publication with the hope that it will influence others who suffer as I did to try the great Root Juice remedy. The wonderful medicine has done so much good for me that I feel it my duty to tell it. For years I spent a life of misery, but thanks to the great discovery, I am now free from every ache or pain. I like many others, was very skeptical when the papers first told of the many hundreds of cures Root Juice was making, but after seeing several people that were using it I concluded to try it, although I felt that every organ in my body was almost worn out. My liver was torpid, my kidneys were weak, and my stomach was in a horrible condition. At times it felt like it was full of rocks. A great deal of gas formed and I had weak spells frequently and was badly constipated. My appetite was very poor, and even in hot weather my hands and feet were cold. I was using some kind of medicine most of the time without much benefit. After taking the Juice a few days I began to improve. I have used four bottles and am feeling better than I have for twenty years, and I believe the remedy has permanently cured me.—Mrs. J. A. Colbert, R. R. No. 7, Ft. Wayne, Ind. The great remedy has done worlds of good here, as any one can learn by calling at Wilcox's drug store. Root Juice is sold for $1 a bottle, or three for $2.50.

Good Lamp Shades.

Shades for candles and lamps have never been prettier. The most wonderful combination of silk or satin with lace, or gold braid and tiny rosebuds, or beads and satin, are used. With these can be wrought out something so lovely that one's first and last impression is that it is a pity it is not a hat.

For small lamps and candles those made of silk in rose pink or old gold, the whole being put on in fine plaids, are attractive. The top and bottom may be finished with a circle of the smallest roses or with a gold cord.

When the latter is used the cord around the top is tied in a bow with small loops and the ends are finished with tassels that fall the length of the shade.

There are some fetching ones where the material is stretched tight over the frame and the entire thing is covered with a meshwork of beads to match the silk. The size of the mesh is half or three-quarters of an inch square.

Around the bottom of these there is a fringe of the beads four inches deep. These are in either Nile green or dull gold.

A simple shade to make, and one that is quite effective, is of a square piece or silk.

If it be for a candle shade of regulation size have it 9 inches square. Cut out a round place in the center to exactly fit the frame and bind it with a narrow gold guilpe. On each of the four corners that hang several inches longer than the other part sew a tassel of heavy gold cords.

The shade for a larger lamp worth describing, is of coral silk covered with baby Irish lace. The edges, tops, and bottom are finished with several rows of small pearl beads.

If you are not satisfied after using according to directions two-thirds of a bottle of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, you can have your money back. The tablets cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the digestion, regulate the bowels. Give them a trial and get well. Sold by all dealers.

DR. DOXEY IS FREE

TAKES A TRAIN FOR COLUMBUS, NEB., AFTER THE STATE DROPS HIS CASE.

WILL JOIN HIS WIFE IN THAT CITY

Before Leaving St. Louis She Asserted She Was Done With Him, but There May Be Another Chapter in the Case.

St. Louis, Mo., June 8.—Dr. Loren B. Doxey left last night for Columbus, Neb., where he expects to arrange for the auctioneering of his household goods, after an agreement is reached between him and his wife, Mrs. Dora E. Doxey, who is in Columbus. She went there to sell their belongings.

Dr. Doxey was released from the city jail at 11:15 a. m. yesterday, after Circuit Attorney Jones had entered a nolle prosequi in Judge Grimm's court to the charge of first degree murder. Before sustaining the motion, Judge Grimm asked whether there were any other charges against the physician, and was informed there were none.

There was some worry caused for the attaches of the jail by Dr. Doxey declaring that two keys, valuable to him, which had been confiscated by the police at the time of his arrest, were missing. It was finally discovered that one of these, a trunk key, had been given to Mrs. Doxey by Mrs. Wolf, wife of the jailer. The other key was later turned over to him.

Dr. Doxey went to the office of Charles P. Johnson, his attorney, and conferred with him. He told Johnson he would return to St. Louis in a few days after he had arranged his affairs in Columbus.

He said he did not intend to let his wife have an auction sale unless he was on the ground.

He was very sorry he could not stay in St. Louis to attend the medical convention, Dr. Doxey said, as he had never attended a meeting of the American Medical association, although a member, because they were so far away at other times.

He was asked if he thought there would be a reconciliation, but he refused to discuss this.

He said he did not know if he would come back to St. Louis and practice or not and he had not fully made up his mind what he would do.

"I have several doctor friends in Chicago who I have heard from," said Doxey, "and they have written to me to come to Chicago and open up an office and practice, and one of the jailers told me he thought it would be best for me if I went to some foreign country and practiced."

He will arrive at Columbus, Neb., this afternoon at 3:15, and will be met at the depot by his attorney.

Operation Was in the Hope of Reform From a Physical Condition That He Asserted Had Control of Him.

Anderson, Ind., June 8.—George Stegner, 51 years old, father of nine children, secured his release from the county jail last night by undergoing a sterilization operation at St. John's hospital in the hope of reform from a physical condition that he asserted had control of him.

Stegner was arrested recently on a charge of having mistreated an eleven-year-old girl in this city. Pending his trial Stegner was examined by a lunacy commission that concluded the man is mentally sound, but degenerating physically.

Stegner rather agreed with the commission and talked with the physicians about some means of putting a check on him.

He concluded that sterilization would help and was taken from the jail to the hospital, where Drs. McWilliams, Conrad and Fattie performed the operation, from which Stegner rallied, and, after a few days at the hospital, will be given his liberty.

Stegner has a respected family, that moved to this city a few years ago from a farm that Stegner continues to own near Lawrenceburg.

How to Pad Embroidery.

The usual method of padding embroidery designs before applying the real embroidery pattern is tedious to say the least, but there is a simple, quick method of doing this work which makes the task less laborious. Fill in the space with the old-fashioned chain stitch. This stitch is made by throwing the thread back of the needle with every stitch, producing a netlike stitch which quickly covers space and fully answers the purpose of padding. This will be found very helpful when making a centerpiece of floral design upon thin meshed scrim, which is most difficult to work. It is equally helpful on solid designs worked upon art linen.

Improving the Eyebrows.

It is easy to shape the eyebrows and train them into a fine curved line. The few stray hairs which spoil the line of the eyebrow can be pulled out with tweezers. After this has been done, cold cream should be rubbed into the parts to soothe them and prevent any irritation. By training them with the fingers every time the face is washed they can be formed into a fine arch, and by proper brushing they can be made to look handsome and well cared for. First with the tiny eyebrow brush brush them straight up toward the forehead, and then brush them downward toward the eyes. This process makes every hair lie in the direction in which it ought to grow.

WEALTH AND TITLE

UNITED BY A MARRIAGE THAT WAS SOLEMNIZED IN LONDON, ENG., TODAY.

BISHOP OF LONDON OFFICIATED

Miss Margaretta Drexel, of Philadelphia, Became the Bride of Viscount Maidstone in Metropolis.

London, June 8.—British nobles and American millionaires filled the Drexel mansion at 22 Grosvenor square to overflowing today when Miss Margaretta Drexel, daughter of Anthony J. Drexel, of Philadelphia, became Lady Maidstone, wife of the Viscount Maidstone.

The recent death of King Edward caused the Drexels to abandon some of the pomp and ceremony which was to have characterized the wedding, it having been the original intention to solemnize the union of wealth and title in St. Margaret's, Westminster, the church attached to the house of parliament.

Long before the hour set for the ceremony Grosvenor square was a center of attraction for the curious of London, who were only kept in bounds by cordons of police.

The bishop of London officiated at the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of soft satin, of simple design, trimmed with gold lace. Her veil, draped over the shoulder, was the one worn by her mother at her marriage.

Miss Mildred Carter, who is to wed the Viscount Acheson tomorrow, was one of the ten bridesmaids, the others including Lady Gladys Finch-Hatton, sister of the bridegroom; his two cousins, one being Lady Templeton's daughter; Miss Edith Wayne, of Philadelphia; Miss Constance Combe, the Hon. Miss Rhoda Astley, daughter of Lord Hastings; Lady Letty Manners, the Duke of Rutland's daughter; Miss Helen Post and the Hon. Miss Sybil Fellows.

Viscount Maidstone, who is the eldest son and heir of the thirteenth Earl of Winchelsea and ninth Earl of Nottingham, is practically penniless. He will gain little financially through his marriage, as the elder Drexel was opposed to the match, and consented only on the condition that the young couple be content with an income of $5,000 the first year, $10,000 the second, and so on in an ascending scale up to $50,000 a year. The viscount is to share in this income only as long as he remains "good." The financial schedule of Papa Drexel also allows $2,500 a year for each child born of the union. That Viscount Maidstone consented to this sort of marriage settlement is looked upon as proof that this is a "true love match."

Hundreds of valuable gifts were showered upon the young couple, some of them having great intrinsic value.

The fiancée's gift to the bride is a string of large pearls. Her father's gifts include an automobile, in which the couple will start from Paris on their honeymoon tour, a deep pearl dog collar with bars of diamonds, and a diamond and pearl plaque slung on a pearl chain.

Lorn Winchelsea, father of the bridegroom, has given the bride a diamond, tara. Mrs. George Drexel gives a diamond and sapphire ring and Mrs. Paul Mills a diamond and ruby ring. Mr. Edward T. Stotesbury, partner in the banking firm, sent a diamond and pearl plaque, the Duc and Duchess de Vizen an antique gold mounted fan of great value. Count and Countess de Sigray, a gold mounted bag.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Biddle and Mr. Livingston Biddle sent a pair of tall crystal vases in silver holders. Mrs. Malvina Drummond a gift rose bowl. Mrs. George Cavendish Bentinck a pair of antique gold cups, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Henry coffee cups with silver holder. Mrs. Van Rensselaer a set of heavy oblong silver trays and Lord Alington enamel necklaces.

Dowager Lady Arran gives a quaint old silver bell; Mrs. Bischoffshein, an antique shagreen case; Mr. Henry Brougham, a gold fitted motor bag, and Lady Bessborough, some old Wedgewood vases.

The bride also received handsome and valuable gifts of costly jewels from the George J. Goulds, who last month became allied with the Drexels through the marriage of Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., brother of today's bride, to Miss Marjorie Gould. All of the Goulds witnessed the ceremony.

Since the day she made her formal bow to society at a ball given by her aunt, Mrs. Alexander Van Rensselaer, in Philadelphia, great things have been predicted for Miss Drexel. Later in the season she was formally presented to London society by way of the throne room, and after that the beautiful Philadelphia, for she is beautiful in reality as well as in the newspapers, was reported engaged to every eligible man in the upper sets of Europe.

She could not dance twice with an unmarried man without the news being put on the cable in the form of a rumored engagement. She finally became so accustomed to having Europe and America marry her off to the son of the German emperor, the son of the king of Greece, several dukes, a few French counts, and others who supply the matrimonial gossip of Europe, that she learned to pay no attention to it.

Nothing that was said, no limelight that was turned upon her, no constant repetition of her prospective alliances turned the head of this young and very simple girl. She remained unaffected, natural, spontaneous and girlish.

The titled youths who have sought Miss Drexel's hand in marriage range all the way from Prince Francis of Teck and Prince Louis of Orleans to an ordinary baronet, Sir Charles Hartopp.

Following her refusal to marry Prince Francis, Prince Louis and Sir Charles, she turned down the proposals of the Duke of Lewiston, Lord Dalmeny, Lord Wedehouse, Lord Herbert Vane Tempest, Viscount Royston, the Honorable Winston Churchill.

One of the first sitters for the hand of Miss Drexel was Prince Louis of Orleans. Miss Drexel's romance with the prince did not advance very fast. He was not encouraged, because of Mrs. Drexel's determination that her daughter should remain free until after her debut.

Sir Charles Hartopp had the advantage of being a close personal friend of Miss Drexel's father, but his age, 51, was a serious objection, it is said, and besides, he was a divorced man.

Winston Churchill who was considered as being in the running for a while, grew discouraged and married Miss Clementine Hozier, daughter of the late Colonel Sir H. M. Hozier, K. C. B.

AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price.

Saloon Thought No. 413

If each saloon collects only $35 a day, it means that in the last ten years that the saloons in Sedalia have taken over $3,000,000 out of circulation and gave us ten times worse than nothing for it. Muscatine, Iowa had this same experience, and they stepped it in 1907, then the tax rate dropped at once. This money remained in the community, going into houses, lots, merchants were more prosperous, etc., etc., and please note the tax rate: 1907 with saloons.....41½ mills 1908, no saloons.....40 mills 1909, no saloons.....38 mills Can YOU buy property with the money you spend in saloons? If you can't, explain how OTHER people can. Suppose you earn $2 a day and spend $1 a day in a saloon, how long will you be earning the $2 a day. Besides the fact that we are wasting $1,000 a day in saloons, we are at the same stroke reducing our earning capacity.

NEWS OF THE RAIL

THE BAGNELL BRANCH LINE TO BE EXTENDED TO SPRINGFIELD, MISSOURI.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

One of the greatest happenings in railroad circles of interest to the people of Jefferson City is the letting of the contract for the extension of the Bagnell branch, says the Jefferson City Post of Tuesday.

The Missouri Pacific has let a contract to the T. P. Jones Construction company for sixty miles of extension work on the Bagnell branch. It is understood that another firm will receive a contract for the remaining work to extend the road to Springfield.

This work has been contemplated by the Missouri Pacific for many years, and now it is an assured fact that the extension will be made. It is understood that the work will not be started until the T. P. Jones Construction company has completed its work here in the local yards.

The extension to Springfield will give Jefferson City a trunk line from the south and will mean a great deal. As soon as all the trackage is laid it is said that the roadbed from here to Bagnell will be repaired and a good smooth roadbed will be had from Jefferson City to Springfield.

Trouble With Strike Breakers. Some trouble occurred at the round house last night, but was not participated in by any of the Nevada men who are out on strike, says Tuesday's Nevada Mail. The trouble was between a fellow brought here to act as guard and one of the "strike breakers." It is alleged the guard took on an oversupply of liquor and that he engaged in a quarrel with one of the fellows brought here to work and that the guard beat the other fellow.

Chief of Police Owens was summoned to quiet the trouble and he arrested the guard and the latter's trial was set for Thursday. It is understood that the guard will be replaced by another. This is the second time a guard has created a disturbance.

The Nevada men who walked out when the strike was ordered are still out, but they have caused no trouble nor created the slightest disturbance. They are standing firm and are making a dignified stand for the wages they believe are due them, and the fair treatment they are entitled to receive.

Injured Brakeman Dies. W. M. Feely, a Missouri Pacific brakeman, who was injured while helping clear a freight wreck three miles east of Coffeyville, Kan., Friday morning, died at the Good Samaritan hospital in that city Monday.

Feely was struck in the back by some manner not ascertained, by a heavy object and his back was broken. He was about 35 years of age and was unmarried. His home was in Kankakee, Ill.

Special Train Tonight. C. M. Hunt, trainmaster for the Missouri Pacific, left on the fast mail train this morning for Kansas City to conduct a special train of six Pullman coaches, conveying delegates of the American Women's league from Kansas City to St. Louis. The train will pass through Sedalia about 9 o'clock tonight.

Promoted to Conductors. Earl Chambers, Robert Phelan, J. C. Hunter, Harry Yarnell and I. B. Phelan, M. K. & T. brakemen, have successfully passed examinations for promotions to conductors, and are now full-fledged "bosses" of trains on that road.

New York, June 8.—Asserting he intended to become a stock broker, Alphonse M. Consolazio, the former priest, who recently married 16-year-old Katherine Johann, of Trenton, N. "When Bishop McFaul called me before him," said Consolazio, "he refused to discuss anything with me but Miss Johann.

"He said my name was being connected with hers and, when I found there had really grown up a great deal of talk, I made up my mind the truest thing to do was to quit the church and marry Miss Johann. I did so, but we did not elope, as has been said.

"My father, who is a noted engineer in Italy and a friend of the pope, has written me he will be glad to have us visit him.

"I have several letters from institutions of learning to take a position as teacher of classics, but Wall street appeals to me.

THE OTHER SIDE OF IT

Mrs. Coughlin Answers the Statement of Ben Gallie.

To the Democrat-Sentinel. Mrs. Coughlin wishes to state to the public that the statement made by Ben Gallie, the well known machinist, is false, and as soon as she can prove who the six men were she will prosecute them.

No little girls called my husband a "scab," but instead those men told the little girls to call Mr. Coughlin a "scab," and the girls said, "You call it yourself," as they had done before, and in the presence of ten witnesses used profane language, and so therefore Mrs. Coughlin asked protection in her husband's absence.
